

Brooke Kozak, Esq.

(Associate)

Brooke Kozak advises employers in all areas of employment law. She also conducts workplace investigations for public- and private-sector employers.

A former human resources professional focused on employee relations, policy development, and recruiting, Brooke brings practical business and management experience to her practice of employment law. She previously worked with association, non-profit, and insurance organizations.

Brooke is a certified Professional in Human Resources (PHR) and a member of the Society for Human Resource Management and the Association of Workplace Investigators. She provides pro bono assistance to clients with legal problems associated with debt collection and bankruptcy for the Voluntary Legal Services Program of Northern California.

People would be surprised to know:

Brooke fostered dogs with a rescue organization until she became a “foster failure.” Her dogs, Lincoln and Darwin, are “good boys who frequently make bad choices.”

Education:

J.D., University of the Pacific,
McGeorge School of Law

B.S., The Florida State University

Bar Admissions:

California