

Michelle Goldberg, Esq.

(Of Counsel)

Michelle Goldberg is a former public sector attorney with more than 20 years of experience.

Michelle began her career in criminal defense, where she conducted several jury trials and hearings. She then joined a public enforcement agency and one of the largest California state agencies, where she provided on-going advice, counsel, litigation, and training services.

Michelle's practice is focused on conducting internal investigations and providing advice/counsel to public and private sector employers. Clients praise her attention to detail and commitment to problem solving.

People would be surprised to know:

Michelle is a nationally ranked Masters swimmer, who also spends time schlepping her children to their ever growing list of activities.

Education:

J.D., University of Nebraska
College of Law

B.A., University of Oregon

Bar Admissions:

California