

Lisa Beuhler, Esq.
(Of Counsel)

As one of California's most experienced workplace investigators, Lisa has conducted investigations for hundreds of California employers for nearly 20 years. She investigates complaints of misconduct at all levels in the public and private sector.

Clients appreciate Lisa's ability to complete investigations quickly and efficiently without compromising the integrity of the process. She also prepares concise investigation reports that include credibility assessments and factual findings to prepare employers for their next steps.

Education:

J.D., University of San Francisco,
School of Law

B.A., University of Davis

Bar Admissions:

California

Employers call on Lisa to conduct investigations of sensitive matters involving corporate executives, appointed and elected officials, and judicial officers. Because of her Title XI training and expertise, educational institutions retain Lisa to investigate evaluate claims involving gender discrimination, harassment, and sexual misconduct.

Lisa is a frequent speaker, trainer, and author on investigation issues, and presents at the Association of Workplace Investigations Annual Conference and at CALPELRA's annual education program.

In addition to her investigations practice, Lisa uses her more than 25 years of litigation experience to provide practical advice and counsel to clients facing challenging workplace issues.

On the weekends you can find Lisa:

Shopping for mid-century modern furniture and art with her husband and teenage daughters.