
FOR THE EXCLUSIVE USE OF 91664022402@TELEPHONE.TBJ

From the Sacramento Business Journal:

<https://www.bizjournals.com/sacramento/news/2021/08/16/calchamber-executive-joining-shaw-law-group.html>

CalChamber executive to join Shaw Law Group

Aug 16, 2021, 10:31am PDT

After 17 years with the California Chamber of Commerce, executive Erika Frank will be joining Sacramento-based Shaw Law Group PC.

Shaw Law Group provides workplace advice, training and investigation services.

Founder Jennifer Shaw said Frank will be joining the firm at the beginning of September.

Frank currently serves as executive vice president of legal affairs and general counsel at CalChamber, where, according to its website, she is the organization's leading expert on California and federal employment law. She joined CalChamber in 2004 as a policy advocate and began serving as general counsel shortly

ELEAKIS & ELDER PHOTOGRAPHY

Jennifer Shaw is founder of Shaw Law Group PC. She has announced that Erika Frank, currently an thereafter. She was named executive vice president in 2017. CalChamber's legal affairs department participates in court cases involving workers' compensation reform, labor and employment, taxation, litigation reform and commercial free speech.

executive with the California Chamber of Commerce, is joining her firm in September.

Frank received her bachelor's degree in political science from the University of California Santa Barbara, and her law degree from University of the Pacific's McGeorge School of Law in Sacramento.

Shaw Law Group was named one of the Sacramento area's fastest-growing companies in 2020 by the Business Journal. The firm grew nearly 68% between 2017 and 2019, when its reported revenue was $4.21 million. The firm currently employs approximately 17 people.

Jake Abbott

Staff Writer

Sacramento Business Journal

